FALL? COME TO HOLYOKE!

ABOUT NOT FOR SALE – With the Puerto Rican Festival months away, the Humboldt Park neighborhood prepares for the big event. With new neighbors looking to make changes, those that have lived in the community have to work together to either brace for change or let go of the legacies laid out by those that are long gone. A story about community, family, and politics, the question persists, who gets to lay claims to a neighborhood?
